

Do you have a child or young person with special educational needs or a disability (SEND)?

DIAS is a service for children and young people with SEND, aged up to 25, and their parents or carers. We give information, advice and support around SEND issues at every stage of a child's education, including into further education and adulthood.

Impartial | Confidential | Free

We can help you to:

- Get involved and contribute your views, or your child or young person's views.
- Develop a good working relationship with your child's nursery, school or college.
- Understand SEN support and funding.
- Take an active role in Education Health Care (EHC) assessments, plans, reviews and personal budgets.
- Prepare for and take part in meetings.
- Take part in disagreement resolution, mediation and tribunal appeals.
- Find or use other services and support and much more.
